

Q.1

I personally agree with the guidelines about academic honesty. I find that even working with others, I need to crawl through the homework on my own to be able to grasp what I need to know, and be able to apply it later in my physics life. If a solution to the homework is used, the knowledge just doesn't sink in as well.

Wave and probability traces:

I have read through all the side bar links and understand them.

Due: 1/8/2014